GRIN Verlag. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 28 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.1in. Seminar paper from the year 2007 in the subject Ethnology Cultural Anthropology, grade: 1, 3, University of Heidelberg (Institut fr Ethnologie), course: Sorcery and Witchcraft in South Asia: Theories and Practices of the Occult, language: English, abstract: To most people growing up in a Western cultural setting, magic, sorcery and witchcraft hold a certain fascination. There always seems to be something mysterious, extraordinary, even risky to the named issues, probably because we just dont face them in everyday life. Anthropology shares this fascination for the following reasons: cross-cultural prevalence, frequent cultural prominence, paradoxical attributes, no doubt the attraction of the exotic, and the potential for testing theories about belief and social action (Levine 1982: 259). In this paper, I will focus mainly on the subject of witchcraft without disregarding important links to magic and sorcery. Central questions are: What is witchcraft Under what circumstances does witchcraft appear Why do people accuse others of it or confess to witchcraft themselves How does witchcraft relate to the social structure, economics, politics and personal affairs of the members of a society There have been different answers to those questions...
