France also would hardly permit a war to develop, since she lacked heavy artillery for her field army. If, therefore, a war against Russia and France did not seem probable, nevertheless the possibility would have to be considered. The High Sea Fleet, however, was to begin its trip to Norway, set for the middle of July, just as he also would start on his trip to Norway according to previous plans. My question as to whether the Chief of the Admiralty Staff, who was on leave of absence, should be recalled, His Majesty answered in the negative. On July 6th I informed the Acting Chief of the General Staff, Vice-Admiral Behncke, of these orders. What orders he issued as a result I am not able to state since, as Chief of the Division of Tactics, I had nothing to do with mobilization affairs.
